

Short Introduction for Clestine, the Purpose Coach [For businesses]

Clestine, the Purpose Coach was a shy and insecure little girl, born in Sheffield, England. When she was young she wanted to be a teacher, however, she decided to follow the money instead and so she earned her BS in Industrial Engineering and worked as an Engineer for 8 years. She was not truly happy and felt deep inside that she was unfulfilled. In October of 2000, on her Birthday actually, she was laid off and now looking back she calls that a gift from God. Three years later she followed her dreams and her true purpose and started a transformation leadership company, Divine Discipline on May 19, 2003. She has been inspiring, educating and motivating thousands of people all over the world ever since through her speaking, transformation CD's, 5 step Mind Alignment system and coaching programs and her book, Knuggets of Knowledge to Get Unstuck. Please join me in welcoming Clestine, The Purpose Coach.

Testimonial from Mitzie Richeson, President of WOW, April 2014

I can personally claim as one of her past clients, that she truly has a gift for getting to the heart of whatever might have you "stuck" and equipping you to renew your mind for success.
